LIVING FOR ETERNITY (BASS)

BPM 123

F Fmaj7 F7 Bb BASS
The evening comes another day, has passed before my eyes
And if I'm here, tomorrow I'll, see the same again
For, time moves on, with no regard for me
The days, now years, have disappeared...

The morning comes, another night, has slipped by in my sleep
And with the dawn, more time is lost, and death steps closer
Still, I cannot, add another day
F Fmaj7 Eb..... Csus C
The hour has come, to make a change in my life and start...

CHORUS F Fmaj7 F7 Bb
..... living for eternity
Today's struggles don't change my destiny
C Bb F C
And soon, the dawn, of Heaven will break
C Bb Eb C
and i'll enjoy, God's promise of, new life (eternal life)

So future come, I'm ready for, all that God has planned
With better days, and deeper joy, a highly favored life,
Here, on this earth, until my time is through
I'll fix my gaze, to a heavenly, point of view => Chorus
